

Semi Rugged Display

The Ferrograph range of 32", 42", 46" and 57" concourse LCD-TFT display's are particularly suitable for displaying passenger information in large public areas such as Airports, Bus Stations and Passenger Interchanges.

The Ferrograph range of concourse LCD-TFTs , with their wide viewing angle, offer unparalleled visual clarity, superior contrast and high luminance making them ideal for transportation applications where high quality real time information delivery has to be achieved in demanding ambient light conditions.

Key Product Features

- Screen sizes available as standard 32", 42", 46", 55" & 70in.
- High contrast, high brightness screen options.
- Aluminium extrusion front frame with mild steel enclosure, polyester powder coated.
- Tempered laminated glass screen giving protection from occasional acts of vandalism.
- Optional anti - reflective and glare coatings.
- Ingress protected to IP30.
- Range of integrated PC specifications available depending on user application.
- Communication via LAN, RS232 or RS485
- Updates via USB key without the need to open the display.
- Operating range 5°C to +40°C
- A range of mounting options are available including tilt & swivel wall and ceiling brackets