

Vauxhall Cross Station

Vauxhall Cross's interchange station has become a landmark for the local area. It has stimulated the growth of local businesses and encouraged more people to use the area and improved the commuting experience of the thousands of individuals who pass through the station every day.

The scope of work included technical sales advice, budget pricing, tendering, CAD design, engineering, manufacture, finishing, supply and site installation/fitting of construction related fabricated metal works.