

Wide Screen Display

The Ferrograph 28in Ultra Wide Screen TFT Display is a compact high brightness display which offers unparalleled visual clarity for transportation applications where high quality real-time information has to be delivered in demanding ambient light conditions. An ideal choice for any on-street or in-shelter display.

Key Product Features

- Fabricated lightweight aluminium construction.
- Latest generation TFT-LCD panel with high brightness : 1000 cd/m2. 1920 x 357 ultra wide aspect ratio 16:3.
- High brightness , sunlight readable energy efficient display.
- Small form factor to enable installation within most shelters and to enable bus stop pole mounting..
- Tough all-weather construction manufactured to IP65, impact rating IK7.
- Specifically designed to be mounted to a range of bus stop posts, with optional sun hood.
- Environmental control, impact detection and diagnostic information.
- A range of mounting options ensures that the display maintains versatility in providing an excellent platform for any transport application.
- Retro fit to all major shelter designs.
- Dimensions: 900mm(L) x 220mm(H) x 130mm(D).